“Personal Service with a Professional Touch, At an Affordable Price”

Our personal service comprises:

- 📖 An atmospheric, family run, traditional 16th Century Coaching Inn
- 📖 A tranquil setting, offering privacy for contemplation.
- 📖 Conveniently situated on the A470, just off the A55, with plenty of free car parking.
- 📖 Husband & wife team, Richard & Anna Scott together have many years of experience in organizing private occasions.
- 📖 We offer a professional & sensitive touch, however formal or informal the occasion,
- 📖 A sympathetic, caring & unobtrusive personal service is guaranteed at all times
- 📖 Let us make the arrangements for you at this difficult time.
- 📖 Home visits can be arranged to discuss your requirements,
- 📖 Arrangements can also be organised on-line - info@talycafn.co.uk
- 📖 We offer a wide range of food alternatives, ranging from a range of buffet choices to an afternoon tea.
- 📖 Prior to making your booking, we would be delighted to show you around The Tal-y-Cafn, without obligation.

We can also arrange all your other post-funeral requirements:

- 📖 Floral decorations in your private function room on the day – The gentle beauty of flowers can help express your feelings of respect for the deceased.
- 📖 A Guest Register for tributes to your loved one.
- 📖 Your choice of back ground music – personal favourites of your loved one or those special shared songs to stir memories
- 📖 An evening wake, naturally moving from your light refreshments into an organised evening supper, thereby incorporating friends and family unable to attend the day ceremony,
- 📖 An evening wake with a choice of hot & cold supper dishes to reminisce over.
